PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

COMMENTS BY CITY COMMISSIONERS

Mayor Collins

- Invited Helen McBride's daughter, Robin, to come to the podium. Robin shared heartfelt remarks about her mother's condition and spoke warmly about the deep love Helen always had for the City of Stuart.

Commissioner Rich

- Commented on Helen McBride's presence and involvement in the City of Stuart.
- Commented on the Rivers Coalition Meeting last week and the government's response to the needs of their communities.

- Pleased with the quick response to a request for new lighting at the pier and thanked the Interim City Manager. [Mr. Boglioli gave credit to Milton Leggett, Public Works Director.] Commissioner Rich continued that local government can be responsive and how important Home Rule is.
- Noted that he would be departing shortly before today's D&D to travel to Tallahassee this evening to attend the Legislative Conference at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Commissioner Clarke

- Commented on her visit with Helen McBride at Hospice in Stuart today.
- Commented on the Joint Meeting prior to this meeting and some of the items before other boards and encouraged people to become involved.
- Thanked Milton Leggett, Public Works Director, for all he does.
- Commented on the upcoming vote for Interim City Manager, Roz Johnson Strong.
- Thanked Commissioner Rich for planning to attend the Legislative Conference in Tallahassee.

Vice Mayor Reed

- Reviewed on the issues addressed at his Town Hall Meeting.
